Local Intelligence.

Trade
Was good in all lines yesterday in East Waco, and the fun was fast and furious for a while.

New Paper.
The "Censor" is soon to be established at Meridian, Bosque county, by two gentlemen recently from Missouri.

Trade
Were but few real estate transfers yesterday, and they are of an unimportant character.

There was no
Perceptible change in the cotton market yesterday, several large lots were sold at about our last figures.

Two Hundred
Bales of cotton were shipped yesterday. Six car load of general freight, and one of lumber received.

Several heavy
Shipments of goods from New York, Galveston and New Orleans were received here for up country merchants.

Mr. J. W. Hewitt
The new livery man, is building up a good business. He is a clever fellow and deserves success.

We Regret
To learn of the illness of Rev. Mr. Hackett, Rector of St. David's church in this city, and rejoice that he is slowly but surely recovering.

Mr. Eggen
The freight clerk at the Depot, has built himself an office on the platform, and has it sumptuously furnished with inverted nail kags.

The Mediterranean
Is situated between Dr. Cornish's store and the Oil Building, and has water of sufficient depth to float a seventy-four gun ship.

The Deputy Sheriff
Returned from Huntsville yesterday. His party arrived in safety, and are now under the paternal care of the warden of the penitentiary.

Two gentlemen
One a prominent Galveston merchant and the other a resident of this city, "mixed" yesterday in East Waco. There were no bonds broken, and we get a basket of champagne to withhold the names. Selah.

The Business
Our Post Office is increasing very rapidly. It will soon be one of the most important in the State. It is well conducted, and the present management gives great satisfaction.

A small

Train of Bell county wagons, freighted with cotton, arrived here yesterday. Our merchants are wise in fostering the valuable trade of that county.

Mr. H. H. Earl
Is appointed Deputy, to organize Granges in and for the 19th Senatorial District. In making the announcement last week the proper initials were not given. Our friends will take notice and be governed accordingly. His post office address is Waco.

A Friend
From Brown county speaks enthusiastically of the character of the heavy immigration now flowing into that beautiful country. They represent every class of industrious workers, and every State in the Union.

commendable.

Quite a number of the liberal property holders on Bridge street, in view of the deplorable condition of the city finances, have taken upon themselves the task of grading and graveling that street. When the work is completed, the street will be one of the handsomest in the city, and property will be worth at least twenty per cent. more than it is now. We contend that property owners are standing in their own light when they, from motives of mistaken economy, refuse to put the necessary improvements on the streets, in the vicinity of such property. We should like to see some of the other streets follow the good example set them by Bridge street.

No Man Ever

Published a newspaper among a kinder or more thoughtful people on earth, than does the publisher of the EXAMINER. Yesterday the ladies of the Catholic Church sent us in a basket of lunch, and a liberal supply of wine, and what is more remarkable, every article was of home manufacture. The wine was made from Texas grapes; the bread and cakes from Texas flour; the fowls were native and to the man born. So too was the "illigant" animal from whose quarters were cut the liberal slices of ham, and above and better than all, the lunch was presented by native Texas girls, as fair and as rare, as only Texas girls can be.

The Catholic Supper

Marshall's Hall Wednesday night was numerously attended; and, judging from the crowd present, it must have been very profitable. The tables were freighted with the richest viands. One of the features was the magnificent pyramid cakes that adorned each table. The edibles were furnished by the ladies of the church, and argue a most commendable liberality.

Person.

B. C. Jackson, a clever merchant from Gatesville, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Haggart of Galveston, who has been visiting here for a week or so, left for home this morning.

W. S. Holman, Esq., of Belton, was in the city yesterday, and called to pay his respects.

Mr. B. C. Allgood, of Hamilton county, paid a visit yesterday.

J. M. West, of Bold Springs, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Judge Chamberlin

Won the elegant set of silver, raffled for, at the Catholic supper Wednesday night.

Fred Axling

Is adding to his already large stock of liquors cigars and wines every day. It is astonishing how much personal worth dignifies a business, and also how much it has to do with the ultimate success of it. To this fact our friend Fred owes as much perhaps as to the excellent qualities of his liquors. He is a gentleman in the broadest and best sense of the term.

Many people

On the delinquent tax list have paid the taxes of 1872 during the year 1873, the taxes accruing last year still remain unpaid. It would be well for everyone to examine closely histax receipts, to see there is no mistake. A good deal of trouble has already grown out of this circumstance.

Prof. Taylor.

The Wizard, "drew" a large house last Wednesday night, and all are pleased with the character of the performance. The lucky holders of winning tickets, are delighted with the liberality of the Professor.

MARRIED.

CHAMBERLIN—MARLIN.—Thursday, February 12th, 1874, at the residence of the bride, by Hon. E. P. Massey, Mr. JAMES T. CHAMBERLIN to MISS ANNIE MARLIN, both of McLennan county.

California papers please copy.

WE INTERVIEWED

Mons. P. Pelorce, a French horticulturist, just arrived with a large assortment of the newest fruit trees, vines flower plants, roses and bulbs, and a full stock of dower and garden seeds. All in perfect order and warranted. Extraordinary specimens of fruit on exhibition. Call on him at his store on Third Street, next door to Marshall & Early's.

CURT RIDDLE

Now occupies, the old Lady Gay saloon as a market house. He keeps the best of good, fresh meats.

FRED AXLING

Has now on hand a large lot of the very purest liquors of all kinds, and if you do not believe this, Fred, says, come and try them. He also sets a first-class lunch, daily, from 10 a.m. to 12 m. Call.

HEEKS

We are, or ought to be, if we want any cast iron goods around at Kelly's House, N. E. corner Public Square.

JUST RECEIVED,

For sale at Jackson & Knight's, a lot of chromes, frames stereoscopes, and stereoscopic views. They are also turning out by the thousand those beautiful enameled photos. If you want a fine and pretty picture, one that does you justice, fall in with the crowd that daily throng their gallery.

Two hundred barrels of the above varieties now arriving at

MARSHALL & EARLY'S
Cor. 3d & Franklin Sts.

PATRONAGE

Home manufacture, especially when it is cheaper and better.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.

Absolutely safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test, and its perfect burning qualities are proved by its continued use in over 300,000 families.

MILLIONS of gallons have been sold and no accident—directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it.

The immense yearly loss to life and property, resulting from the use of cheap and dangerous oils in the United States is appalling.

The Insurance Companies and Fire Commissioners throughout the country recommend ASTRAL as the best safeguard when lamps are used. Sold for circular.

For sale at retail by the trade generally, and at wholesale by the proprietors, CHAS. PRATT & CO., 105 Fulton Street, New York.

One Hundred Bundles of Ties just received.

E. P. MASSET, Sec'y.

REMOVAL.

E. A. Sturgis has removed to his elegant new store, on Bridge street, where he will keep the largest stock of General Merchandise in the city.

I return my grateful thanks to my many customers for past favors, and shall ever be thankful to serve them in my new store. Twenty Rolls of Bagging and One Hundred Bundles of Ties just received.

E. A. STURGIS.

REOPENED.

SCOUTER PLOWS

For 50 cents—work splendidly anywhere. At Kelly's house.

LUCKETT'S LINIMENT—LIVING WINES.

BLUE RIDGE, Falls County Texas, {

August 16, 1873.

Mr. S. M. Lockland:

DEAR SIR—I have been sorely afflicted with Rheumatism for several years, so much so that at times I have not been able to walk without the greatest pain for two and three months together. I have tried every remedy, and been attended on by several good physicians, but have never experienced any relief until I was induced to try "Luckett's Liniment." After using three bottles I find myself entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may see this and profit by my experience, and seek speedy relief in this truly wonderful medicine.

J. W. ROBERTSON.—
